This sweep-ing measure is the production of Lord Ash-burn, lord chancellor of Ireland, and assent to its promulgation was obtained at yesterday's cabinet council. It is hoped that the English and Irish home rulers will now rest until the meeting of parliament when tardy action can be taken in opposition to evictions and to restrain the governments coercive activities. they accept refused rents.

The executive has already proclaimed the anti-rent campaign. This agitation, he claimed, would crush coercion with the

Mr. Jordan declared that rent had for merly been paid by remittances from America; the American people were resolved that no more of their money should go into the pockets of the Irish landlords.
